

Film is Alive, Feeling Good and Having a Party in Toronto!

On May 4th through 7th 2006 in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, the Analog Photography Users Group (apug.org) in partnership with J and C Photo will be holding a conference for amateur and professional photographers to celebrate and promote the use of film in the medium of photography. The APUG conference will be based at the Elevator Gallery a multi use facility which is 15 minutes from Toronto's downtown core.

The APUG conference will have 17 workshops including street photography, cross processing, lith printing, studio portraiture, solarization, introduction to large format photography, carbon printing and numerous portfolio reviews.

APUG Photography Exhibition Entry

The APUG Photography Exhibition is open to all APUG Subscribing members and Conference attendees. The only rule is that all Photographs must be made using traditional methods. Up to two images can be entered. Along with the form at left, fill out the small forms below and tape to the back of your unmounted picture. If your image is chosen it will be framed and mounted by Elevator Gallery. For those who choose to sell or auction their images 40% will go toward supporting APUG and the conference. You may raise the percentage to 100% of the sale price. Entry fee is 25.00 (see line item at left). Photos that do not sell can be picked up after the show at the Gallery or shipped back at the artist's expense (include return postage with fee).
